

“The Center of Attention”

A Study on the Book of Mark

Mark 1:14-20

❶ JESUS’ ARRIVAL ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

❷ JESUS’ ANNOUNCEMENT ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

The Kingdom of God is both the present and future. (15a)

The King: Jesus Christ the son of God.

The Citizens: Disciples empowered by the Spirit.

The Values: Written in the Heart.

❸ JESUS’ APPROACH ATTRACTS ALLEGIANCE.

Jesus calls people to faith (14-15)

Jesus calls people to follow him. (16-20)

Jesus calls people to “fish” for people (17)

Disciplemaking is an intentional relationship to walk alongside someone who’s been invited to regularly follow Jesus, living out his ways, words and works.

GETTING STARTED:
“BLESS” PRACTICES

B: Begin with prayer
L: Listen to their story
E: Eat with them
S: Serve them
S: Share your story

“The Center of Attention”

A Study on the Book of Mark

Mark 1:14-20

❶ JESUS’ _____ ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

❷ JESUS’ _____ ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

The Kingdom of God is both the _____ and _____.

The King: Jesus _____ the son of God.

The Citizens: _____ empowered by the _____.

The Values: Written in the _____.

❸ JESUS’ _____ ATTRACTS ALLEGIANCE.

Jesus calls people to _____ (14-15)

Jesus calls people to _____ (16-20)

Jesus calls people to “_____” for people (17)

Disciplemaking is an intentional relationship to walk alongside someone who’s been invited to regularly follow Jesus, living out his ways, words and works.

GETTING STARTED:
“BLESS” PRACTICES

B:
L:
E:
S:
S: